BLUE CANOPY OPENS ENGINEERING AND OPERATION CENTER IN INDIA

New Center Will Support Upcoming New Version Launch of Blue Canopy's 4pi™ Solutions Suite

Reston, VA, November 9, 2005 – Blue Canopy, a strategic IT management partner to Fortune 1000 and Global 2000 organizations, announced that it has established an engineering and operation center in New Delhi. Plans for the center include hiring up to 50 engineers and business consultants over the next six months.

The center will support the launch of Blue Canopy's 4pi nVision™, a performance dashboard. 4pi nVision provides businesses the ability to integrate all of their IT processes and service provider data on one easy-to-use interface. This allows for fully optimized IT management resulting in an effective, measurable and process-driven organization. Blue Canopy's impressive client roster features companies such as America Online, AT&T, Hyatt, Bank of America, Nextel, Sprint, and Toyota.

"The engineering and operations center in New Delhi will enable us to capitalize on the strong engineering resources in this region," said Jeff White, president of Blue Canopy. "In addition, it will also help our US-based clients manage many of their offshore initiatives."
